TEXANS URGE PRESIDENT TO MOBILIZE ARMY IN TEXAS IN CASE OF NECESSITY

Congressmen Smith and Burleson Inform Him of Fear Americans Have in Mexico and of Lawless Condition.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19.—Mobilization of the United States army in Texas again is not improbable. In fact, such a mobilization is looked upon as certain to occur if the Mexican situation does not soon clear up.

President Taft has laid before his cabinet the suggestion made to him by representatives Smith and Burleson, two Democratic members from Texas, to order the mobilization for groups action any time Congress may order such an extreme step for the protection of Americans in those parts of Mexico where the Mexican administration is unable to afford protection of life and property.

Not only was the president able to lay before the cabinet the information submitted to him by the two Texas congressmen, but he stated that he had received from Mexico directly such like information, which he laid before the cabinet.

Americans in Danger.
The Mexican situation, as laid before the president by Messrs. Smith and Burleson, is still in that anomalous state that it has been for several weeks. Not an American has been molested, but their safety is said to be at the mercy of the Mexican situation.

Stone in Bladder Removed Without Surgical Operation

In the spring of 1904, I was confined to my bed with kidney trouble and thought that I would never recover. I took a lot of medicine but did not realize any benefit from anything. I finally saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root advertisement and sent for a sample bottle and thought the sample bottle helped me, so I bought more of the medicine from my drug store, and after using a few bottles discharged a very large stone from my bladder.

After passing this stone my health was very much improved and I have been able to continue my business without any serious sickness.

J. L. KNOWLES,
Headland, Ala.
Personally appeared before me this 14th day of September, 1909, J. L. Knowles, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

MUCH TROUBLE AROUND TORREON

At La Perla hacienda, they were seized just outside the city and confiscated. The forces under command of Benjamín Alcaraz, who had occupied the hacienda and have established general barracks there. The Coyote ranch, reported devastated and the buildings burned.

A force of Vasquistas under Luis H. Morán, former lieutenant of the forces in Torreon, visited and sacked all ranches between Nazareno station on the Central and Jimulco. The store at Nazareno was robbed of everything available and the express car robbed of $47 for which Morán gave a receipt. Among the haciendas sacked were La Flor, Jimulco and Nazareno. Morán's band has put the railroad out of commission south of Torreon. The last passenger train brought 60 men of the Fifth artillery under Capt. Farrer O'Connell. This force brought in two rapid fire guns of 75 millimeters.

two mountain guns, 150,000 rounds of ammunition.

Ranch Cleaned Out.
El Lucero ranch has been robbed by a band which completely cleaned out the ranch store and house, even to the beds and clothing, obliging the Spaniards to sleep on the bare floors.

You may thank your lucky stars that you are a Mexican and not a Spaniard or you would be killed. The leader of a band of 150 men who robbed the San Ramon ranch of everything in sight, as the leader dealt the mayordomo a blow on the back with his machete. The mayordomo, Joaquín Velasco, hurried on mule back to Torreon to consult with the owner of the ranch and to get surgical attention. He kept to the bushes and passed many small parties of insurgents of 10 and 20 men each. The ranch store was completely robbed.

The store at Otis belonging to the Jimulco Mining company was cleaned out by the bands near Picardías, $4000 being taken. The home of J. E. Moore was also robbed, but the fate of $2000 worth of dynamite which was stored there is not known.

Train Held Up.
The "ranchero" train, running between here and Hipolito through the Lacuna district, had an exciting experience. On reaching Sacramento bridges were reported to be burned on both sides of the train and an attempt was made to reach Torreon over the abandoned International by way of Hornos. The crew and engine were out of water and the engine, with conductor Phelan on board, was taken to Torreon to fill its tank. On their return the crew found the bandits looting the train and conductor Phelan insisted that there were no arms aboard, these having been concealed. The revolutionists ordered the looting to continue when the conductor, after coupling the engine to the train, hastily gave the order to depart without arranging the air appliances or other necessities. The train was followed by a scramble of the revolutionists from the tops and interior of the box cars. They abandoned the train but not until they had completely emptied three cars of merchandise.

LOCAL MILITIA COMPANY IS KEPT UNDER ARMS
Company K, of the Fourth Infantry, Texas national guard is still under military command in the basement of the courthouse, which is used for armory purposes. The guards were called about nine o'clock Saturday night at the courthouse, where the company has since remained. Some of the boys were with girls at "The Virginian" and others were attending the picture shows when they were called out and had to plume their friends from the armory. "For goodness sake go up to the theater and take my girl home."

MAZAPIL TREASURY ROBBED
Mazapil, Mexico, Feb. 15.—In a letter to friends in this city, Ingo Le-mell, of Zacatecas, confirms the reports that the Mazapil treasury, in the state of Zacatecas, was assaulted by bandits and the office of the revenue collector, sacked of several thousand dollars. The town was robbed of provisions and arms.

Rebels Are Hanged Near Gomez Palacio; Caught Burning Railway Bridge.

REBELS AROUND TORREON CITY

Emiliano Enriquez, of Chihuahua, is now in charge as jefe politico of Ciudad Juarez. He assumed the duties of the office Saturday evening shortly before 6 o'clock, at which time Santiago Mestas retired. There was no demonstration attending the retirement of Mestas.

It had been rumored in Juarez that some objection would be offered to the seating of Enriquez in place of Mestas. However, Mestas offered none and the people were well satisfied to have Enriquez installed.

Traffic on the Mexican National line is now open between the cities of Juarez and Torreon, the first through train between those points in three weeks arriving in Juarez shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday morning with 25 passengers in the Pullman and first class coaches and a number of people in the second class coaches.

Information was brought on this train of the hanging of two young men of Gomez Palacio, Dgo., by federal soldiers from Torreon at Brittingham station, near Torreon.

It is said that one of the young men was used as a guinea pig in the case of a millionaire of Gomez Palacio. His family sent out a special train to bring his body home for burial.

There will be no fighting in Juarez, so chief of police Campa says. "I do not believe there will be any occasion for any fighting," he added. "I do not believe the Vasquistas at Casas Grandes will attempt to come to Juarez. I believe they will move to Chihuahua. But if they should decide to come to Juarez, we will have no fighting in town. Those who want to fight will have to fight in the desert to the south of the city. We do not want our people in town endangered any more and we will not have any fighting. But what's the use of talking about it. There will be no fight. Nobody is coming to fight."

Mr. Campa has been summoned to Chihuahua to serve on Gen. Orozco's staff, but he deems it best to remain in Juarez for the present, as he says he can be of more good there than at Chihuahua at the present time.

Machine Guns on Hand.
Juarez now has two machine guns at the office of the commandant of the city. They were imported through the custom house from the United States, direct from the Colt factory.

Trains were to have been run on the Mexico North Western railroad south from Juarez to Pearson Monday, but none were run and at the company's headquarters in Juarez it was stated that definite time can be set for the resumption of traffic.

More Bridges Burned.
Three bridges just south of Barreal, which is 36 kilometers south of Juarez, were burned by roving bands Saturday night. The work train is still out on this line, but it is not known what effort will be made to repair the bridges at this time. The structures had been repaired but a day when they were burned again.

The telegraph lines along all the Pearson road to Pearson and Madera are in working order.

Traffic Open to Torreon.
On the National railway, traffic is open as far south as Torreon. The regular passenger train arrived in Juarez at nine o'clock Monday morning and having been delayed for several hours, owing to the condition of the bridges between Chihuahua and Torreon, the train ran at slow speed.

There was some uneasiness felt in Juarez Sunday, owing to the failure of the pay car to arrive, because the 18th of the month is always pay day there. However, superintendent F. C. Mentzer says that the men will be paid in full on Monday. The men will be paid from the funds which the company has on hand.

Palomares in Vasquistas Hands.
Reports come from Palomares, Mexico, 10 miles south of Juarez, to the effect that the Vasquistas are in control there. Other reports are to the effect that there are only five or six men in control there.

Prisoners Are Hanged.
According to the report, a band of 100 young men was surprised while burning a bridge near Brownsville. The band was captured and the latter gave chase and captured two of the men. These men were then hanged to a telegraph pole. The bodies of the two men were allowed to remain hanging until removed Saturday.

The federal band was sent out to guard the road and to capture men who were stopping traffic and interfering with business in that section.

At the station of Yarratzen on the International Mexican road, the train Friday was held up by 15 armed rebels. They searched the train for arms, ammunition and secured one gun. Then they took the whole train and pressed company's safe from the express car, broke it open with a chisel and a saw and secured $300 in cash. They did not molest the passengers or make any further attempt to rob the train.

While Torreon is in the hands of the rebels and the interurban cars between those cities are being held up, the reports to this section, Torreon is guarded by a number of federal troops and there is an equal number of Vasquistas. The Vasquistas also organized a force of volunteers to protect the city against attacks.

Juarez is not fearing any attack by rebel bands and the Vasquistas at Casas Grandes are said to be making preparations to move to the city of Chihuahua and the Vasquistas at Mazapil are said to be making preparations to move to the city of Torreon.

Selected Horses Delivered.
Saturday afternoon Col. E. Z. Stearns, commanding the troops on the American side, delivered to the U. S. customs officers a number of selected horses, 10 stallions and some amputation at Nola, N. M., when 12 men were arrested. Delivery was made at the Santa Fe street bridge.

WAY TO GAIN FLESH

There is only one way for thin, weak persons to gain flesh and strength and that is to eat and digest more food.

"But that's just the trouble," says one. "I don't want to eat at all and the doctors say it does more harm than good to eat what I don't want."

That's true. The thing to do is to get an appetite and good digestion. Miss Henrietta Huber, of the Bronx, N. Y., says on this subject: "I was very weak and had been for several months, as I thought I ought to take Vinol to gain strength. After taking Vinol I have gained over 15 pounds in weight and my appetite is good. Now I am as strong as ever."

This is a remarkable case, but there are thousands of others, proving that our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is a certain body builder and strength creator. If you are weak and thin you should by all means give Vinol a trial. The thing to do is to build you up and make you strong. We guarantee it to do this. Kelly & Pollard, Druggists, El Paso, Texas.

OPINIONS RENDERED IN TWO TEXAS CASES BY THE U. S. SUPREME COURT

Carmack Amendment Again Declared Unconstitutional in Mohair Shipment Case.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19.—For the second time the supreme court of the United States today declined to declare unconstitutional the "Carmack amendment" to the interstate commerce law passed by congress in 1905 and making liable for loss or damage incurred to the goods during any portion of the route.

Today's decision concerning a shipment of Mohair from Uvalde, Tex., to Lowell, Mass., over the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railway. The Texas court not only upheld the law but declared that state courts as well as federal courts would enforce it.

Another Texas Case Decided.
Without passing on the constitutionality of the Texas franchise tax on foreign corporations, the supreme court held that Gear, Scott & Co., an Indiana corporation, could not recover a tax paid under the law because it was doing only interstate business and paid the tax voluntarily.

The company which manufactures threaders and other machinery, is located at Richmond, Ind., and does a large business in the state of Texas. It brought the suit to recover $257 paid franchise tax collected under authority of the acts of March 2 and April 19, 1905 of the state of Texas. The taxes were paid under protest.

The company contended that the acts under which the franchise tax is collected are in conflict with both the state and federal constitution because they impose unjust and illegal burdens upon foreign corporations, because they discriminate between domestic and foreign corporations, because they attempt to impose a tax on property not within the state, because they interfere with the interstate commerce and because they impair contracts.

The demurrer of the state was sustained by the trial court which was affirmed on appeal in the court of civil appeals at Austin. The supreme court of the state refused the application for the writ of error, which was then sued out to the United States supreme court.

Colorado Statute Invalid.
